

PEACE EDUCATION WINTER SCHOOL FOR YOUTH WORKERS AND TEACHERS

March 16–18, 2018

Pärnu, Estonia (Pärnu Viiking Spa-Hotel, Pärnu Central Library)

PARTICIPANTS

Motivated teachers and youth workers from Estonia, Finland and Latvia who want to be introduced to peace education methods they can easily replicate in their school practice or youth work.

COURSE DESCRIPTION

The Peace Education winter school will introduce the best practices from Finland and Norway on peace and diversity education to Baltic teachers and youth workers. In the 3-day long training 40 teachers and youth workers from Estonia, Latvia and Finland will engage in mutual learning and exchange of experiences in how to teach and manage diversity in schools and youth work. The practical methods used in the training can later be easily included in every-day work with children and youth in all partner countries. The course is held in English.

TRAINERS

Joakim Arnøy – coordinator of youth work, democracy, human rights and peacebuilding at the Narvik Peace and War Centre (Norway).

Hanna Niittymäki – director of School Cooperation of the Peace Education Institute (Finland).
