

„Jagatud teekonnad“: faktid ja lood rändest 21. sajandil

International Webinar on Climate Change and Migration

„Global challenges and opportunities of the 21st century:
responsibilities of individuals and nations“

Event date: February 18, 2021 (Thursday) at 14.00-17.00 (Eastern European Time)

NB! Please be ready to use other platforms in addition to Zoom (menti.com, jamboard.google.com). Ideally, we expect each participant to be logged in Zoom on a separate device.

Agenda

- 13.50-14.00 Registration to Zoom
- 14.00-14.10 Introduction and warm-up
Meelis Niine, NGO Mondo
- 14.10-14.30 Opening interview with the President of Estonia Kersti Kaljulaid
Interviewed by Viktoria Ishkina, EstMUN youth
- 14.30-15.15 Panel discussion with experts on human rights and climate change
Aveliina Helm - University of Tartu, Kristi Klaas - Ministry of Environment,
Kari Käsper - UNHCR, Minna-Liina Lind - Estonian Ministry of Foreign Affairs
Moderated by Martin Peñaherrera, EstMUN youth
- 15.15-15.30 Introduction to Estonian Model United Nations 2021 topics and activities
Viktoria Lepp, NGO Mondo

The end of the live streaming and a short break (please stay in Zoom)

- 15.45-16.30 Group discussions in separate break-out rooms moderated by EstMUN youth Andrey Pankratov, Oryna Kozmenko, Valeria Potšinok, Vladislav Virtonen and teachers' discussion moderated by UNESCO
ASPnet Coordinator Viktoria Lepp
- 16.30-17.00 Presentation of the group discussions, conclusion and feedback

VÄLISMINISTEERIUM

Rände- ja kliimateemaline rahvusvaheline veebinar toimub Välisministeeriumi toetusest rahastatud ÜRO matke programmi raames koostöös Euroopa Komisjoni ja Kodanikuühiskonna Sihtkapitali kaasrahastatud projektiga „Jagatud teekonnad: faktid ja lood rändest 21. sajandil“.