

INFORMATION ABOUT THE TRAINERS

TADEJA PIRIH

I am an LGBTIQ+ activists, feminist and trainer for inclusive, equal and LGBTIQ+ education from Slovenia. I am part of Ljubljana Pride Pool of trainers and Outside In - Transforming Hate Pool of trainers and am working on topics of LGBTIQ+, feminism and gender awareness, youth work, hate speech and intersectionality. I can provide trainings, workshops, seminars and tools for youth workers and educators to recognise, manage and transform hate speech in their everyday work with young people.

More about my trainer's experiences: Ljubljana Pride Pool of Trainers , Outside In - Transforming Hate pool of trainers

EEVA-LIISA KIISKILÄ

I am a teacher and a peace educator from Kokkola Finland. I also coordinate teaching of different language and cultural groups. I work in development projects that aim to increase equality and equity, and from educational perspective inclusive education. I am the team leader of Global School Kokkola and there by Peace Education Institute is and has been an important partner in peace and global education work for many years for our organisation. I was awarded the title of "Global Educator of the Year" in 2017, by the Teachers Without Borders organisation in Finland. My educational background is classroom teacher from international teacher training program from Oulu University (ITE) and a subject teacher in Finnish as a mothertongue/as a second language and literature.

AMIIRAH SALLEH-HODDIN

A social psychologist by training, I have experience in research on education for the ethnic Malay-Muslim minority in Singapore, worked on gender and culture-sensitive integration issues in Finland, and with youths on anti-racism and interfaith education in Australia and Finland. In addition, I am the co-founder and chair of the Anti-Racist Forum in Finland, and an international activist for Muslim-Jewish relations. In 2018, I was awarded the title "Global Educator of the Year" by the Teachers Without Borders network in Finland. In 2019, I was elected as the vice-chair of the European Network Against Racism (ENAR).

In 2019, I also started my doctoral studies in sociology at the University of Helsinki as part of the research team working on the project "Intersectional Border Struggles and Disobedient Knowledge in Activism" funded by the Academy of Finland. I work as a peace educator and trainer for inclusive, equal, anti-racist, intercultural and interfaith education, and I am part of the European pool of trainers and experts who can provide quality trainings and tools for youth workers and educators to recognise, manage and transform hate speech in their everyday work with young people. You can find me and my work on <http://amiirah.eu> .

